

EarlySense Technology Platform

The EarlySense system is a fully integrated patient monitoring supervision platform that provides contact-free, continuous patient vital sign and motion information.

Easy to Use
Configurable
Contact-Free,
Continuous
Monitoring

EarlySense provides the nursing team with innovative solutions designed to enhance patient safety.

EarlySense
Proactive Patient Care

CONTINUOUS & CONTACT-FREE MONITORING

EarlySense.com

T. (781) 373-3228

InSight Unit

- Plug in, discreet and low profile
- Easily fits into the department workflow

EarlySense 2 Bedside Unit

- Displays continuous measurements of patient's heart and respiration rate and trends display
- Optional SpO2 Monitoring available.

Under the Mattress Sensor

Contact-Free Sensors

- Highly sensitive, absolutely contact-free
- Placed under the mattress
- Can be compatible with all bed and mattress types including active mattresses

Optional Chair Sensor available. Contact-free sensor placed inside a memory phone cushion.

Remote Monitoring Devices

- View the Central Display Station from anywhere in the department
- Visual and audio identification of potential critical events
- Personalized alerts sent to the assigned caregiver
- Ability to integrate with hospital existing handheld device

Central Display Station (CDS)

- Real time status display of up to 40 patients
- Visual and audio identification of potential critical events
- Patient's continuous measurements and trends display

Ability to integrate with EMR

EarlySense Contact-Free Patient Monitoring System

At EarlySense, we understand that every facility is unique and patient acuity levels vary. That's why we offer the ability to mix and match products and offerings.

The All-in-One system provides contact-free, continuous monitoring of HR, RR and motion to allow clinicians more opportunities to prevent patient deterioration, falls and pressure ulcers.

Continuous Vital Signs Monitoring for Early Detection of Patient Deterioration

- ✓ Highlight vital signs trending which may indicate future deterioration
- ✓ Provide data-driven decision making and Rapid Response Team (RRT) activation
- ✓ Help clinicians prioritize tasks during their shifts
- ✓ Reduce alarm fatigue

Fall Prevention – Designed to allow the fastest way to the patient

- ✓ 6 levels of customizable bed exist sensitivity
- ✓ Enable staff to be at the bedside before the patient has exited the bed
- ✓ Individual and team response times

Pressure Ulcer Prevention – Designed to assist clinicians in identifying patients at high risk for developing pressure ulcers

- ✓ Personalized patient-turn protocols
- ✓ Real-time turn reminders delivered to mobile devices
- ✓ Documentation and verification of patient turns

The EarlySense monitoring system is also available in Vitals or Safety only solutions.

EarlySense Management Tools: Reports & Online Data

A variety of patient management reports, including nurse shift reports and patient status reports, provide management with important data to assist the facility achieve clinical improvements. In addition, managers will be able to use the information such as number of alerts, response time and changes of thresholds to improve alarm management on the floor.

Reports & Online Data

- ✓ Ability to improve clinical outcomes by ensuring proper monitoring and management of all individual patients
- ✓ Response time data
- ✓ Daily shift insights
- ✓ Improves nurse shift changes by providing incoming staff with alerts history and current monitoring settings for their patients
- ✓ Team protocol compliance shift changes