COMPANY PROFILE

Mocapor was founded in 1992 with the defined objectives to dedicate itself exclusively to the transformation and commercialization of Portuguese natural stones from the quarries of company's group: Pedramoca. It soon earns his own place in the international market of ornamental stone, with the participation in several projects in more than 30 countries.

Our own means of manufacture, combined with the privileged access to our raw material, allowed us to expand internationally and consolidate the work made with our partners along these years, inspired and sustained by our motto: "a family of stone".
