COMPANY PROFILE

Ano 2000, Lda. is a family owned Portuguese company founded in 1987. With more than 35 years of experience, we produce and export a wide range of food products under our brands.

Our products are certified under IFS and HACCP norms, ensuring consistent quality and food safety across all processes.

Our best-seller is our Tom Milk yoghurt range, known for its long shelf life and the fact that it does not require refrigeration, making it ideal for markets with long transport routes.

Exporting has always been at the heart of our success, allowing us to reach new partners worldwide. Our mission is simple: to meet our clients' needs and support them through each step of the shipping process, providing high-quality products and reliable service.

We believe strong business relationships are built on trust, communication and consistency. We prioritize close connections and offer ongoing support to create lasting partnerships.
