COMPANY PROFILE

Quinta de Jugais' journey started with a simple passion: the richness of flavours from Portugal. That is our passion, that over 22 years has led our dream of being able to take people our country's charm through traditional products full of an authentic taste.

Our commitment is to create only the most natural options. For that we count only with the freshest fruits that give the authentic flavour to our jams.

We don't add any type of artificial additives during the production process since we believe we can offer top quality products in its most natural way, so that everyone can be able to experience the true flavour of fruit.
