COMPANY PROFILE

C&F – Wood-fired Bread was born from the desire to bring back the flavors of the past, with respect for tradition, time, and ingredients.

We don't just make bread. We create authentic experiences, where every imperfection tells a story.

Each loaf is unique, full of soul, because it's made by hand.

We use carefully selected flours and 100% natural ingredients — no colorings or preservatives — traditional fermentations, and bake in wood-fired masonry ovens that honor the rhythm and nature of each bread.

Here, nothing is standardized — because beauty lies in difference.

The natural imperfection of our products is our greatest pride.

Every day, we produce a wide variety of breads made with different types of flours, shapes, and sizes.

Each product is carefully crafted by hand, preserving the genuine flavors and unmistakable texture that define our traditional breads.

From Loaves to Brioche breads, from rustic to specialty breads, we create unique pieces in every shape and size — handmade with time, soul, and natural ingredients.
